C.1.E - identify theatrical vocabulary and terminology, including basic anatomy of theatre spaces.

C.1.F - identify the structure and form in examples of dramatic literature.

Lesson Frame:

We Will: examine the storytelling form in a modern context.

I Will: Examine how a story is presented to an audience.

So That I Can: Create my own version of the 21st century story

Estimated Time to Complete: 1 hour

Resources Needed: Assorted pictures found online or in magazines.

Non-Digital Resources: See above

Lesson Delivery (What do we want you to learn?):

The changing nature of the way we tell stories is dependent on the storyteller. How do you tell your stories?

Engage and Practice (What do we want you to do?):

3. Photograph Activity (10 minutes)

Use a photograph as inspiration for a story.

Select any picture and decide: What is the story of this picture?

Outline the story of the picture. You may get ideas from other stories that you like or start fresh with an original story
