

Aledo High School

Class of 2026

GPA and Class Rank

Aledo High School students earn a grade point average and class rank based on their academic achievement. Grade point average and class rank, for the Class of 2026, is outlined below.

Calculation

The district shall include calculation of class rank semester grades earned in high school credit courses taken in grades 9-12 only, taken in the following subject areas: English, mathematics, science, social studies, and any Advanced Placement (AP) course not associated with these subjects. Any elective course in one of these subject areas shall be excluded from the calculation.

Exclusions

The calculation of class rank shall exclude grades earned in any home school course, any credit recovery course, any distance learning course including a Texas Virtual Network (TxVSN) course, any local credit course, or through credit by examination, with or without prior instruction.

Class Rank

Class rank shall not be reported except for students in the top ten percent as required by law. Aledo High School will provide each student ranked in the top ten percent a written notification indication that student is ranked in the top ten percent of the class and include the student's numerical rank in class. Aledo High School will not report class rank on a student's academic transcript for any student not in the top ten percent.
